DENVER INC CONNECTION

May 9th Delegate Meeting @ Southwest Improvement Council

This month's meeting is about spring cleaning and catching our breath. A lot of the work we do to achieve our mission is done through regular meetings of our "Interest-focused" committees. It is a good time to offer an update. The Dollar Dictionary offers INC a proud legacy, but can we more effectively meet our mission with something new? How can we focus our efforts on supporting the needs of our neighborhoods? Join us for this important discussion. 8:30 Am @ SWIC, 1000 South Lowell Boulevard MORE INFO

From the President

Larry Ambrose

Imagine a World Class City...

"When Denver looks in the mirror, what does it see? WCC! There was a time, not too very long ago, when Denver was content to imagine itself as a "Great City". But that got old when all we got was a Six Flags amusement park as the main entry into our downtown, a new airport that looks like cool tents, and a road to them named after the great imaginer. But we have heard for at least the past 10 years from our political leaders and planning professionals, that Denver is, should

New Legislation for Distillery Liquor Licenses Signed

A new law creates a new liquor license for spirituous distilleries so that they may operate a pub on the premises. The license would be subject to needs and desires. Requires 15% of food sales. Governor Hickenlooper signed the legislation on April 24, 2015. READ MORE
